An investment in a Fund is speculative and involves a high degree of risk. There can be no assurance that the Fund's investment objective will be achieved, and investment results may vary substantially from year to year. Some of the Funds, and some of the Managers in which some of the Funds invest, may utilize leverage and such Funds' performances may be volatile. An investor could lose all or substantially all his or her investment. The fees and expenses of a Fund may offset its trading profits.
